

Old Friends

We all have that special friend we've known for more years than we can count. The one who has been with you through everything, the one who never questions and only does what is asked. Time to say thank you.

Old Friends

110% is a way of life for you.
You don't know how to give less than all of you.

Take it from one on the receiving end.
I am the lucky one since you've chosen me to befriend.

If I have given back even a small portion of what you've given,
I'd consider myself accomplished but far from being even.

Whether we are young or old,
Truer friends could never together mold.

As we both get old and gray,
May our bond together never stray.
